Vilnius

Vilnius is one of several European capital cities at the crossroads between West and East, South and North. This special position is reflected not only by the variety of its architectural styles, but also by the spirit of the city. The heart of Vilnius is built around certain hills, including one that is home to the basic architectural symbol of Lithuania – the tower of Gediminas’ Castle. The city is further enhanced by its picturesque setting in a valley at the confluence of the Neris and Vilnia rivers. Vilnius hides a host of surprise discoveries, something for everybody: all different and unique.

Vilnius is currently one of the most visited cities in Eastern Europe. In 1994 the Old Town of Vilnius was included in the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation
(UNESCO) World Heritage List. Today, Vilnius has a population of about 550,000, and it has gained a reputation as a cosmopolitan, safe and friendly city.

It is worth to stay longer in Vilnius, because there are numerous places to visit, several possibilities to entertain or to rest. Anyway, if you have only four days, it will be sufficient to fall in love with Vilnius and leave with a lasting impression.

Vilnius is the kind of city that one always wishes to return to!
